

Birmingham Airport

Birmingham Airport (BHX) is an international airport located 10.2 km east-south-east of Birmingham city centre in the Metropolitan Borough of Solihull.

The airport acts as a base for Flybe, Monarch, Ryan Air, Thomas Cook airlines and Thomson Airways.

Offering domestic flights and international flights to diverse destinations in Europe, the Middle East, India, North America and the Caribbean, the airport is the seventh busiest in the UK.

If you are flying off to far-flung shores or beetling off to a business trip at home or abroad you'll want a relaxing and stress-free start to your trip. So book now with Link Airport Transfer Service Ltd for a cost-effective airport transfer service.

Birmingham Airport began life back in 1939 when it was owned by the city council as a municipal airport. Like so many UK airports it was taken over by the Air Ministry during the war years. They developed the site and built two hard runways.

By 1954 there were services to Dublin, Belfast, Glasgow, Edinburgh and Jersey.

Today, Birmingham Airport houses forty different airlines and operates thousands of direct and indirect services.

Services and facilities

At Birmingham airport you'll find a good selection of shops including Duty Free shopping beyond passport control. When the airport was transformed into a one-terminal facility there came with it 19,000 square feet of duty free shopping along with a range of high street and designer brands.

Business and leisure lounge facilities

Birmingham airport offers a selection of lounges for your pre-flight comfort. The Aspire Lounge boasts runway views, free Wi-Fi and a quiet zone.

For business class, First class and Skywards Gold travellers there is the Emirates lounge. Here travellers can enjoy fresh food, full bar and shower facilities.

Offering a broad range of facilities to all departing passengers is the No.1 Lounge. Pre-book online here.

Your pre-flight refreshment needs are well taken care of at Birmingham airport. There's a range of eating outlets from Burger King to the Blanc et Noir Champagne bar.

It will make a refreshing change to arrive at the airport relaxed and with enough time to enjoy the facilities that Birmingham airport has to offer. So why wait? Call Link Airport Transfer Ltd now to arrange your reliable and wallet-friendly airport transfer service from home or office to airport concourse and back again.